"The play has been fast moving . . ."

FOREWORD

For four years we, the class of '60, have been performing in a gigantic spectacle. With Weaver as our stage and the faculty as our directors, we have all been acting in an all-encompassing drama. Not even Shakespeare, the greatest playwright of all time, could have crammed so much tragedy and so much comedy into just one play! The plot has been a complicated one and the characters have been varied. The play has been fast moving — we can hardly believe that the final curtain is soon to come down!

We made our debut in 1956 with a feeling of stage fright that we thought we'd never conquer. Now we feel all the confidence of seasoned performers. But, just as we've grown accustomed to our parts and familiar with our lines, it is time to assume another role. We're joining an even larger production, and we've been assigned an even larger role. Now there won't be quite so much help from the prompters, and soon we'll find ourselves in starring positions.

As the second curtain rises, we all share the same hope — that our four years at Weaver have adequately prepared us for our new role. We of the yearbook staff would also like to express the hope that, in retrospect, the Portal of 1960 will serve as an adequate review of this unforgettable production.

M.L.A.

" . . . the confidence of seasoned performers."

"... in starring positions."

"... the plot has been complicated!"

"... a gigantic spectacle."

DEDICATION

For their devotion to Weaver and its student body, the class of 1960 would like to dedicate this year's classbook to three members of the faculty. Each has played a vital role in our high school careers, and each will be remembered with fondness for the enviable qualities he or she exemplifies.

Most of America was frightened by the advent of Sputnik, but we at Weaver were confident. With such a capable instructor as head of our science department, we are capable of meeting the challenge. For years this teacher has devoted himself wholeheartedly to Weaver High School. Mainly because of his efforts Weaver's science department has attained such an excellent reputation. Here is a man who, through his own dedication to his subject, has been able to stimulate city-wide interest in the Weaver science program. Although leisure time was rare for our scientist, he often found time to preside over meetings of the Biology Club after school. To this man goes the sincere respect of the members of our graduating class.

MR. RUSSELL BAKER

With a megaphone in one hand, Charlie Brown in the other, an agenda for an F.T.A. meeting under the right arm and a student's guidance card under the left, this human dynamo is ready for another school day. This teacher never ceases to amaze us with her boundless pep and vitality. We cannot even attempt to count the times her sunny smile brightened up a seemingly hopeless blue Monday and how often we've enjoyed her dry sense of humor. All who have worked with her as guidance counselor, as chaperone for the cheerleaders, or as adviser to the F.T.A. will vouch for her ability as well as for her willingness to "roll up her sleeves and pitch in." May we now wish "the best" to a teacher who has been a tremendous influence on each and every one of us.

MISS JEANNINE BELISLE

The auditorium resounds with strains of "Are you ready? What do you say? O.K.?" followed by deafening applause. A man of medium height with a distinctive black crewcut is once again leading cheers for the Weaver Green. We have identified Mr. School Spirit with every rally since our freshman year. We usually see him standing on the podium leading the fabulous Weaver band in a show tune or march. The backbone of the band, he works tirelessly to perfect his organization, and Weaver Band members will never forget those annual picnics at Salem Circle or those rides home in a well-packed station wagon, usually 6-8 students plus a variety of instruments. This understanding leader is never too busy to stop and talk with a student, whether the problem be musical or otherwise. It is for his friendliness and sympathetic nature as well as for his musical ability that we will always remember our beloved band leader.

MR. CLAYTON WAHL

Although words cannot adequately express the gratitude we feel, we, the class of 1960, wish to dedicate this PORTAL to Mr. Russell Baker of the science department, Miss Jeannine Belisle of the mathematics and guidance departments, and Mr. Clayton Wahl of the music department.

MR. WILLIAM F. AITKEN

The pen of Shakespeare himself could not have created a character more worthy of praise and respect than our own principal, William F. Aitken. Mr. Aitken has always displayed the personal integrity and strength of character which identify a true leader. As the director of the entire Weaver company, he is faced with a gigantic responsibility. He faces this responsibility with pride as well as with skill.

It is seldom that one finds a principal so genuinely interested in the well being of each individual student. Because of his sincerity Mr. Aitken has won the wholehearted respect of the class of '60.

In the years to come, the memory of Mr. Aitken will doubtlessly remain as an influence for good in the mind of every Weaverite. As we bid a fond farewell to the school that has endowed us with so many wonderful memories, we would like to express our thanks to you, Mr. Aitken, for your complete devotion to us and to the school we love.

STUDENT COUNCIL EXECUTIVE BOARD

Standing: Miss Roche, Wolfe, Burr, Barenbaum, Grasso, Mr. Aitken.

MR. EZRA MELROSE

Although a multitude of players have taken part in this four-year production, few of them have been as friendly, as helpful, and as interested in the success of the production as our Vice-Principal, Mr. Melrose. Taking an interest in each and every one of us, Mr. Melrose kept his office open to anyone who wished to see him, no matter how seemingly unimportant the purpose of the visit. His sense of duty never failed him, and his wonderful sense of humor gave us many cheetful moments. Always was Mr. Melrose the staunchest of Weaver fans, whether he was priding himself on Weaver's scholastic rating or cheering the football team on to victory.

"All the world's a stage . . . And one man in his time plays many parts." And on this stage of ours, Weaver High School, Mr. Melrose has been at once teacher, advisor, and friend. We supporting players must leave now, Mr. Melrose, but we shall never forget you, and we only hope that the years to come are as pleasant and as profitable for you as these past four years have been for us.

BOYS' CLUB EXECUTIVE BOARD

Stewart, Ragazzi, Montagno.
Standing: Mr. Melrose, Silver,
Ross, Cruz, Garbus.

MISS ANITA K. ROCHE

"Farewells are ever sighing, welcomes ever smiling." Indeed, we have often been welcomed into the office of our devoted Dean of Girls, Miss Anita K. Roche. A familiar phrase to this loyal friend might well be, "Miss Roche, I've been in such a pickle since I saw you last." Miss Roche has helped many Weaverites through the bubbling cauldrons into the clear blue sky of a happy Beaverland. Her effervescent self has been the motivating force behind numerous Weaver scenes. Constantly busy, always on the go, always radiant, she has exerted ceaseless efforts on behalf of the student body. She constantly strove to raise the standards of Weaver's pupils as well as those of the school.

She is a living example of Shakespeare's "'Tis the mind that makes the body rich." Always a true friend and an effective and helpful counselor, she created an aura of friendliness, understanding, and sunshine. Her inexhaustible spring of suggestions and encouragement has aided many of us; her abounding energy and enthusiasm were always contagious. Words cannot adequately express the class of 1960's gratitude to this most remarkable woman, for as Shakespeare said, "I can no other answer make but thanks, and thanks, and ever thanks." Thank you, Miss Roche!

GIRLS' LEAGUE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Standing: Miss Roche, Beebe, Guy.

WEAVER HIGH SCHOOL

All the school's a stage,
And all we that were in it merely players.
We entered Weaver only four short years ago,
But in that time such gifts have we acquired
As shall never be forgotten. We've culled
The fruits of knowledge and have found within
A happiness that scarce can be expressed.
We've made our truest friends within these halls
Of learning — the faculty who helped us when
We were in need, who showed us how to harvest

What they sowed; our fellow students,
Friendly, worthy of our deepest trust,
Enjoying with us the ups and downs of life.
All was not work at Weaver, for we had
Diversions which relaxed us, but which caused
The hours to pass by much too quickly.
So now remain of Weaver High but pleasant
Memories; the halls wherein we talked
And spent four happy years are gone, but they Shall stay locked within our minds, a constant
Inspiration for the times that lie ahead.

FOOTBALL

This year's football team, with eleven returning lettermen, swept to the "winningest" season in a long while! Teaming up with Hartford in the Capitol City Jamboree on September 19, Weaver, truly the outstanding team on the field, scored in the fourth period to gain a 16-14 victory for Weaver-Hartford over Bulkeley-East Hartford.

In the season's opener Weaver met cross-town rival William Hall at Sterling Field. Weaver's mobile, aggressive line was superb. Led by end Dick Raposa, Weaver's line held the Hall offensive to minus 66 yards — this combined with the Beaver's offensive attack resulted in a 24-0 shutout. The following week the "Big Green Machine" encountered a potent East Hartford team on its own home field. Again the Beaver line, with many stalwart performers, held the Hornets, outmoded single wing attack to 12 yards, thus gaining another shutout, 20-0.

For the first time Weaver was scored upon by a powerful New Britain team whose size and depth finally wore down the aggressive Beavers. New Britain returned the opening kick-off for a touchdown, but from that point on it was an even ball game, each team scoring once. With only 2 minutes left to go, the worn-down Beavers were forced to gamble on long passes with New Britain intercepting two last-minute heaves for touchdowns! Ironman Ray Battocchi went all the way, as his slashing, blocking, and defensive play sparkled in the Beavers' gallant display.

At Batterson Field on a hot sunny Saturday afternoon the Beavers entertained a surprising New London team. Weaver's 16-0 half-time lead was trimmed to 16-12 before the final gun finally sounded. Hard-working center Gary Mansfield was outstanding in the hard-earned victory.

The following week on a Monday afternoon Weaver trampled a hapless Torrington team, 52-6. Deceptive quarterback Tony Ragazzi led the backfield to more than 500 yards gained on the ground while sturdy guard Ted Noar held the opposition to a mere 6 points.

A game Norwich eleven was shutout by the powerful Beavers, 36-0 in a pouring rain. Outstanding was aggressive end Kim Pease, who led the Beavers' fine defensive show.

At Weaver after the Beavers had piled up a 28-0 halftime lead, Crosby, one of the better down-state teams, fought back gamely before bowing, 28-20. Captain Larry Silver scored three touchdowns to lead the offensive; the bull-necked middle linebacker was also vicious on defense to preserve the victory.

On November 21, 1959, Weaver met an unbeaten Bulkeley powerhouse at Dillon Stadium. The smaller Weaver team fought valiantly to gain a 14-12 half-time lead. In the second half the picture faded as the much bigger Bulldogs wore down the hard-fighting Weaver team to gain a deserved 28-14 victory. This defeat broke Weaver's string of four victories as strongman Joe McArthur played a tremendous defensive game to anchor the Beaver line. Speedy halfback Tom Stewart sparkled in the backfield, but even these feats combined, were not enough to overcome Bulkeley.

On Thanksgiving Day, only 5 days after the Bulkeley game, a fired-up Weaver team met arch-rival Hartford High at Dillon Stadium. This year marked the first time the Owls have been shut out in 28 consecutive games. The powerful line, led by catlike guard Irwin Knafel, dominated the four quarters of play. Also instrumental in this year's winning season were seniors Tony Rago and Jim Meacham.

This year in memory of Doctor Abraham Klein, Weaver's team physician for 22 years, a trophy was presented to Weaver. Henceforth it will be given to the team winning the Turkey Day clash.

BASKETBALL

The 1959-60 Weaver basketball team ended a mediocre season on a high note as they proved to be the surprise team of the tourney at New Haven. The Beavers started the season in their usual fine style, but finally met defeat at the hands of Holyoke. They increased their record to 5-1 after victories over New London and Fitch, but then met a well-balanced Bulkeley crew at the Fieldhouse. Bulkeley's experience and rebounding strength were enough to stave off a second-half Beaver rally. Weaver defeated New Britain in a return encounter to mark the 18th consecutive time the Golden Hurricanes have fallen prey to the classy Beavers.

Weaver then traveled to Norwich to play a determined Wildcat crew in a thrilling, foul-infested contest which was finally decided in the overtime period with another Norwich victory! The following Wednesday Weaver met their old-time rivals from Hillhouse in the Weaver gym, and defeated them to the tune of 54-43.

The Beavers then met Bulkeley for the second time at the Fieldhouse. The spirited Beaver team remained in the contest until the last minutes, but could not stop the new City Champs. At East Hartford the following Wednesday the slumping hoopsters engaged a surprising Hornet quintet which triumphed over the "cooled off" Beavers!

On January 30, the masterful Beavers retaliated when they met H.P.H.S. Their play was superior as Co-Captain Ernie Perry sparkled. Sophomore John Lee was also superb as his all-around play led to the conquering of H.P. H.S.

Weaver then defeated Sacred Heart, but was defeated for the 6th consecutive time by Norwich in our gym. The following week at Groton, Weaver pounded Fitch with classy Ernie Perry scoring 31.

At the Fieldhouse we met Hartford for the second time, but went down to defeat. Lanky Dale Allen was the only one who kept Weaver in contention as his 22 points was tops.

To gain a playoff berth Weaver had to defeat New London in our gym. Tall Harvey Manekofsky came up with his best performance as he rebounded ferociously and poured in 21 points to lead Weaver to a 62-57 victory.

After walloping Darien in the play-down round, 62-43, the Beavers also conquered Manchester 67-50 at New Haven. On March 3, in a driving blizzard, Weaver was forced to play Wilbur Cross in the Arena. By the time the final gun sounded at 12:40 A.M., we had been defeated, 61-55. Weaver remained ahead throughout 3 periods, but finally succumbed, probably as a result of the long bus ride. Co-Captain Tom Stewart was all over the court as his shooting, dribbling, passing, and rebounding almost led Weaver to a win over the State Champs.

March Blizzard Blasted Our Tournament Hopes!

CROSS-COUNTRY

This year's cross-country team, under the direction of Coach Colin T. Wilson, completed its season with a fine 12-7 record, one of the best in recent years. Led by Co-Captains Brian Sullivan and George Bois, and sophomore James Hardeman, the harriers placed 2nd in the Greater Hartford Meet in Keney Park. Hardeman bettered the existing course record, but lost by 1 second! In the State Meet, despite the injuries of Hardeman and Co-Captain Sullivan, the squad finished 9th in a field of 36 teams. At Norwich, Weaver defeated Bulkeley and New London while losing to Norwich. At East Hartford the harriers were again victorious. Hardeman won in the sensational time of 12:48, just 1 second short of the course record.

From this year's squad all but four lettermen will return. The seniors are Co-Captain George Bois, Columbus Woodard, Paul Miller, and Gerald Fierstein. Outstanding underclassmen are James Hardeman, Sanford Cloud, Ernest Parrish, and Co-Captain Brian Sullivan.

BRIEF HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1960

FRESHMAN YEAR

As we walked through the now familiar portals of Weaver High School as wondering freshmen, we could not imagine what wonderful moments the next four years would hold. As lowly freshmen we found ourselves in the clutches of unmerciful seniors with tempting offers of "elevator passes." The lunchroom chaos seemed unbearable, especially after the loss of chocolate milk! We survived remarkably, and just in time to cheer with mighty voices at our first pep rally. We must have brought good luck to Weaver because our football team beat H.P.H.S. for the first time in eight years on Thanksgiving in 1956.

We were only meek freshmen, but we soon got the feel of things and started right off accepting our share of the responsibility. Willa Cooper began her illustrious career on the Lookout as a cub reporter, and Krin Kelley assumed her first of many offices in the Girls' League.

This was our year for firsts — our first Goodwill Formal, our first Weaver Night, and our first Dramatic Club play, all of which we looked forward to with great enthusiasm during the next four years.

Added prestige was brought to our class when Krin Kelley and Sharon Abel were selected for the cheering squad, and Jon Kramer won the Rentschler Elementary Algebra Prize.

As our first fabulous year at W.H.S. came to a close, we felt a tinge of over-confidence, and could not wait to return in the fall to show our superiority to the new freshmen.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

This year began in grave disappointment. To our dismay the daily activity periods were abolished, and the passing mark was raised to 60. We soon regained gay spirits as we became full-fledged J.C.C. voters and wondered with delight over the strange Mr. X painted in the lobby.

Thanksgiving Day brought another disappointment as we lost to H.P.H.S., but a speedy recovery was in store as our classmates began to assert themselves as leaders in the school. Jon Kramer became president of the Photography Club, and Morton Kahan the Biology Club prexy.

Mike Burack, Molly Myerowitz, Margie Adoff, Willa Cooper, and Ronnie Kadden really showed them what sophomores could do when they won Honorable mentions in the Scholastic Writing Contest.

We shed just a few tears when our basketball team lost out in the CIAC tournament! Soon we became the first sophomores to participate in Career Days.

As a really exciting year drew to a close, we looked anxiously forward to our Junior year with its increasing responsibilities and prestige as upperclassmen.

After a well-deserved vacation, we returned to Weaver for our first taste of being upperclassmen.

Charlotte Goldstein started the ball rolling with a busy campaign for a seat on the J.C.C. Her efforts made her the only junior on the 1959 delegation to the Council.

We Juniors were getting our first taste of Honor Study Halls, and we really enjoyed it. Our pleasure was temporarily halted when W.H.S. went down in defeat to H.P.H.S. on Turkey Day by the close score of 12-6. Nothing ever keeps Weaverites in the dumps for long, and we recovered just in time to find that Mark Azia was now manager of the Lookout Business Board.

Thursday, October 30, 1958, was a day that will live in Weaver history! For the first time in the 28 years that he had been at Weaver, Jasper Howard reported that not a single Weaverite was late for school! Remarkable! This was a memorable occasion in another way, for shortly afterwards, Jasper, our wonderful friend and a great person, retired from the halls of Weaver, leaving behind a vacuum that will never be filled.

The Junior Class shone academically as Margie Adoff, Caroline Schaefer, Jon Kramer, Bob Seltzer, and Elaine Masi won prizes in the Scholastic Writing Contest.

"The Jacqueline Farr Show" gave Weaver Night for 1959 a new twist. The show was fabulous, and Debbie Miller, Carol Nowak, Nancy Stannard, Bob Lunny, Mike Burack, Margie Adoff, and Sue London helped to make it a great success.

Our basketball team, sparked by Ernie Perry and Tom Stewart, garnered a fine 16-2 record for the season, and although losing to Hillhouse in the state tourney, the team ended up with the city and CDC championships.

"Gaité Parisienne," our Junior Prom, was gay indeed. Chairman Carmen Rogers and her committees made it so wonderful, and Queen Krin Kelley was a true Parisienne belle that night.

The Plattsburg (N.Y.) High School Band invaded Hartford for a week-end and played a concert at Weaver. W.H.S. retaliated by playing at an exchange concert in Plattsburg, and Plattsburg will never be the same!

Various honors greeted our classmates as summer approached. Betty Bushey kept the Wise Scholarship a Weaver tradition, and that summer she toured Europe with Miss Conklin as her fellow-traveler. For the second straight year Weaver had a student chosen to attend the Loomis Pre-college Science Center during the summer. Dave Brody was our representative.

As vacation neared, a multitude of elections took place. Krin Kelley was going to be a busy gal during her senior year, for she became president of the Student Council as well as the Vice-President of the Girls' League. Holly Weidman was chosen to head the Girls' League, and Tony Ragazzi became prexy of the Boys' Club. Willa Cooper was given the responsibility of getting the Lookout out on time!

Sports looked good for the coming year, with Larry Silver having been elected captain of the football team, and Ernie Perry and Tom Stewart being made co-captains of the basketball squad. The teams were given loads of support by our band, with Murray Wise as president, and by the cheerleaders, under Captain Krin Kelley.

And so, with preparations made for our best and final year, there was nothing to do but enjoy our vacation.

SENIOR YEAR

Seniors at last! We proved it by proudly flashing our new class rings and taking over the lobby as the center of all activity. Forty-eight "brains" were soon inducted into the National Honor Society, and elected Mike Burack president. Four seniors, Charlotte

Goldstein, Barbara Karpman, Mike Burack, and Morton Kahan represented us on the J.C.C. Charlotte was also elected mayor pro-tempore.

At the annual Girls' League assembly presidents Holly and Tony presented Mr. Aitken with his "birthday gift." A completely surprised Mr. Melrose was also presented a gift in honor of ten years of dedicated service to Weaver. The Boys' Club collected $165 in a highly successful pencil drive for the scholarship fund.

Honors and more honors were brought to Weaver by our busy Beavers. David Brody and Mike Burack were named Merit finalists. Charlotte Goldstein won the Voice of Democracy contest, Krin Kelley the DAR Award, and Mike Burack the Bausch and Lomb Award. Ferne Youlovsky found the way to a man's heart and was named the 1960 Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Larry Silver was chairman of a perfectly spectacular Football Frolic. We attended a terrific Thanksgiving Game Rally which featured some very glamorous cheerleaders. Turkey Day — a day to remember and we were there to see our great team beat H.P.H.S. 22-0 This ended our best season in a long while with an impressive 7-2 record.

Class officers were finally elected with Ray Battocchi being chosen to head the class and preside over all the senior functions.

We attended our last Goodwill Formal, "Snowflake Fantasy," in a setting of sparkling snowflakes. Phyllis Mirsky was radiant as queen of this memorable event of which Carol Nowak was chairman. Vernice Guy was chairman of the "Girls' League Spring Fashion Show" which featured seniors Pat Jones and Rita Mollen as models.

In spite of a 9-6 season record our great basketball team provided exciting games and showed admirable sportsmanship.

Energetic seniors became weary seniors as we took four days of tests in "Project Talent." We were back in gay spirits as we watched "Hawaiianna," the 1960 Weaver Night. Sue London, Steve Primack, Elliot Pollack, Linda Sherman, Nancy Stannard, Bob Lunny, Debbie Miller, Carol Nowak, Pat Jones, Murray Wise, and Cindy Spiro were among those who made it a "fantabulous" and "beat" evening.

With May came college notices and plans for September. Dave Garbus and his committees made the Senior Banquet a truly wonderful affair.

As we donned our caps and gowns for Class Night, we felt the end closing in on us. Class Night was really great, but before we knew it, we were at our last social event as Weaverites. Chairman Rita Mollen made the Senior Reception a most unforgettable evening.

The full realization that our four wonderful years at Weaver had reached an end gave an air of solemnity to Graduation. We saw before us all the moments we had shared — happy ones, sad ones, the good with the bad, but all of them never to be forgotten.
